2010 EMPLOYMENT LAW UPDATE FOR BUSINESS OWNERS AND HR PROFESSIONALS

NCHC Attorney to discuss recent legislative changes and top employer issues

OXNARD, Calif.—Local business owners will learn about legislative changes and what they need to know about employment law to manage the workplace in the new year when Jonathan Fraser Light, Esq., chairman of the Employment Law Group of Nordman Cormany Hair & Compton LLP, Ventura County’s largest law firm, holds a fast-paced, interactive Employment Law Update. The seminar, presented by the Western Ventura County Employer Advisory Council and the State of California Employment Development Department, will be from 7:30 a.m. – noon, Jan. 13 at the Courtyard Marriott, 600 Esplanade Drive, Oxnard.

“We’ll cover detailed information on the things that cause the most headaches for employers, and we invite attendees to bring their specific questions to the seminar,” said Light. “The program will focus on several hot topics, including arbitration agreements, the latest on Employee Free Choice, recognizing and avoiding workplace violence, discrimination cases and ADA compliance, wage and hour ‘horror’ stories, alternative work schedules and more.”

Cost for the seminar, which includes breakfast, is $85 (by Jan. 6), $90 (after Jan. 6). Register for this seminar by contacting the West Ventura County Employer Advisory Council directly at (805) 382-8638 or email Rolando Morales at Rolando.Morales@EDD.ca.gov.

Light has more than 28 years of experience in the practice of employment law and chairs the firm’s Employment Law Group. He has been selected several times for Pacific Coast Business Times’ “Who’s Who in Professional Services,” consults with more than 300 companies throughout California on their day-to-day employment law needs and is a seasoned trial attorney.
